INDIANA TROOPS AT INDIANAPOLIS

Soldiers Await Orders to Enforce Martial Law.

Called Out by Ralston

Governor Refuses to Recall Soldiers—Premises to Ask Legislation for Compulsory Arbitration of Labor Disputes.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 7.—The military occupation of Indianapolis by the entire National Guard of the state to suppress the street car strike riots, which have continued since Friday, was complete last night when four companies were conducted secretly to the basement of the state capitol to be ready for instant action.

The other forces are in the city armories. The troops are in a heavy marching order and have plenty of ammunition.

It is not known just when martial law will be declared, as efforts are still being made to settle the trouble. About 5,000 union men marched to the statehouse to protest to the governor against the use of the troops. Governor Ralston addressed the assembly on the capitol lawn, telling them he had taken steps to live up to his oath to preserve law and order, and that he would continue his efforts to settle in an amicable way the present street car trouble, but did not see his way clear to dismiss the troops.

Governor Ralston said that the governor also told the crowd that if he was spared until the next legislature he would go before that body and do everything in his power to have enacted a law that would make the arbitration of such disputes a compulsory.

Later 200 women, members of the garment workers' union, went to the statehouse and urged the governor to call a special session of the legislature at once to have such a law enacted. The governor told the women he thought an extra session inexpedient at this time and urged them to use their influence in helping suppress disorder.

General McKee and his staff held a long conference with regard to the places of encampment for the troops. The exact location of the camps he did not make known.

Artillery under arms. Three artillery companies are attached to the Indiana National Guard, Battery A, under the command of First Lieutenant Frank W. Buschman, stationed at Indianapolis. Battery B, under the command of Captain W. H. Rockwell, is at Fort Wayne and Rockwell has artillery companies that are under orders to prepare for immediate service.

Other efforts were made to have President Todd agree to arbitration, but Todd stood firm. The strike is understood, Todd made a proposition for settlement, and this was taken by President Beatty of the Central Labor union to the governor. His purpose has not been made known, but it is understood that there is little likelihood of its being accepted.

300 Deputies Recruited. Another feature of the situation was the unexpected call for hearing for suit for recovery and restoration of franchise against the company by Albert Carson, alleging failure to operate cars. The action was strongly resisted by the company, and Judge Remister took the case under advisement.

Late in the evening another suit for recovery was brought by William Dobson of the Bricklayers' union, also to terminate the lease to the Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern Transit company. The suit was for the possession of slugs, were among the allegations.

More deputy sheriffs were sworn in until the number was raised to about 300.

OUSTS MAD RULER

KING OTTO OF BAVARIA DEPOSED AND PRINCE REGENT IS SUCCESSOR.

HIS BROTHER ALSO DEMENTED

Former Monarch and Predecessor Were Unable to Govern Country Because of Weakness—Ludwig II, Drowned Self in Starnberg Lake.

Munich, Nov. 7.—King Otto, the insane monarch of Bavaria, was deposed here on Wednesday after "ruling" for 27 years.

Prince Regent Ludwig proclaimed himself king in pursuance of the provisions of a law just enacted by the two houses of the Bavarian diet.

The new king is to be known as Ludwig III. He will take the constitutional oath probably on November 8.

A royal proclamation which was posted throughout the kingdom declares incurable the insanity which has incapacitated Otto from ruling and states that in consequence of the Prince Regent Ludwig has brought his reign to an end, has ascended the throne and nominated himself king.

The deposed King Otto was born April 27, 1848, and succeeded his brother Ludwig II, who drowned himself in Starnberg lake (Starnbergersee), June 13, 1886.

Two members of the Bavarian diet were sent as a delegation to Puerstner palace to visit the mad king. They found him in a pathetic condition. When he saw them he stammered some inarticulate words. While they were out of the room they heard a crash and found that Otto had dashed to the floor a tea tray which had been set for the deputies.

The last act of Otto as king, when he upset a tea tray which had been set for the reception of two members of the chamber of deputies, who had come to see him, was in his fatality. A fitting climax to dementia, which had first become pronounced when the king in 1870, Otto, then a prince, ordered his regiment to charge a stone wall, in the belief that the wall was a detachment of the enemy. The king of Prussia called Prince Otto to his headquarters, decorated him with the Order of the Iron Cross for past valor and placed him in the hospital.

Such was Prince Otto of Bavaria, who 27 years ago was proclaimed king of Ludwig II, also a mad king, and elder brother of Otto, had been deposed and a regency established.

J., Nov. 6.—Two intoxicated prisoners, with a riot gun and 1,000 rounds of ammunition held carnival in the Morris county jail here from midnight until dawn Tuesday, terrorizing other inmates and causing a panic in the corridors. Burns and Sampson were asleep in a corner.

Then Sampson and Burns broke into a storeroom and obtained a riot gun and ammunition. Returning to the hospital ward, they closed the iron door and began firing through it. ## ICEBERG CRASH TOLD

STEAMER REACHES PORT SAFELY AFTER TERRIBLE STRUGGLE.

Crew of Ship Struggle at the Pumps to Hold Boat Afloat After Collision in the Dark.

St. Johns, N. F., Nov. 6.—The freighter Manchester Commerce of the Furness line dragged her way into the harbor here at two o'clock Sunday morning while about 100 miles east of Belle Isle.

The night was very dark and the berg loomed out of the blackness so suddenly there was no time to change the course of the steamer, which swept at full speed into the mountain of ice. The force of the impact was terrible. The steel prow of the liner was crumpled like a piece of tin as far as the collision bulkhead. The decks were covered with huge fragments of broken ice and wreckage.

Captain Couch made a hasty survey of the damage and headed his ship for St. Johns. He succeeded in notifying his agents at Montreal by means of flag signals.

The sea was swept by a heavy storm and the steamer had a hard time making port. Torrents of water poured into the hold through the shattered bow. The pumps, although constantly in operation, could scarcely hold their own. The ship reached here in a sinking condition.

DENIES HAVING GIRL KILLED

Woman Implicated in Slayer's Confession Declares He Is Seeking Revenge.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 6.—Mrs. Ella M. Lake, held as an accessory to the murder of Miss Florence Brown on the strength of assertions made by Meade Barr, who had confessed to the killing, in a statement denied that she had any part in or knowledge of the killing of the young woman, and attributed Barr's attempt to implicate her as an endeavor to be revenged for her refusal to accept his advances. These were made, she declared, before the death of a month ago of her husband. At the time Lake and his wife and Barr and his sister had apartments in the same house. "I was introduced to Barr about five months ago," Mrs. Lake said. "Afterward Barr claimed he loved me. I resented his professions and warned him not to enter my apartments unless my husband was there. He said then he would get even with me some day. That is the only reason I can give for his attempt to connect me with the killing of Miss Brown."

30 ARE HURT IN RIOT

GOVERNOR RALSTON CALLS THE TROOPS TO INDIANAPOLIS.

Non-Union Men Beaten by Mob At-tacking Car Agree to Go Home.

Indianapolis, Nov. 7.—Thirty people were hurt in a riot which followed the attempt to run a street car on the Illinois street line. Seven strike-breakers and two policemen, were among the injured, when a mob stormed a car the company was trying to operate with non-union men. Governor Ralston, the chief of police, Sheriff Foxworth, National Guard officers and business men held a conference.

Shortly afterward the governor called out the militia and ordered it to scene of action.

The scene of battle was at North and Illinois streets, where strike-breakers, after being knocked to the floor of the car by stones and bricks, surrendered to the will of the rioters and were rescued by police. The car was abandoned on the track wrecked. The strike-breakers were rushed to the city jail in the patrol wagon, to get them away from the scene. At the police station, after the riot, the strike-breakers entered into an agreement with John Law and Albert Lowry of the Central Labor union to return to Chicago on tickets provided by labor unions.

No other further effort was made to operate cars. Charles Maddox, strike-breaker, was held under a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill when identified as one of the men accused of shooting from the car windows when Thomas Carleton was shot Sunday night. Charles died. Charles Fisher, a strike-breaker, who had previously been arrested for the shooting, was rearrested and charged with murder.

TRAIN CRASH FATAL TO 15

Three Coaches Burn, But Americans Are Believed to Be Safe in French Wreck.

Paris, Nov. 6.—A railway accident on Tuesday night between the Paris-Lyon-Mediterranean railway at Melun, twenty-seven miles from Paris, is the worst in France in years, although only fifteen persons were killed.

The night mail, made up entirely of post office wagons and containing mail sorters, who deal with the mail between Paris and the frontier, crashed into an express train from Marseilles to Paris, causing the injury of many persons in addition to the deaths.

The express train is popular with Anglo-American travelers. The collision took place owing to the driver of the mail train overrunning the stopping point at the Melun station. So far, no deaths among the non-American were injured.

She said the plan was based on the tactics of the suffragettes of the U. S. led by Sir Edward Carson, in preparing to oppose home rule by force.

Miss Zella Emerson of Jackson, Mich., presided over the gathering. Later in a row with the police she was knocked down.

MANY TEACHERS DO NOT PASS EXAMS

Nearly 50 Per Cent Fail to Secure Certificates.

FRANK W. MILLER, REPORTS

State Official Unable to Assign Any Reason for Reduction in the Number of Applicants in the Past Year.

D. A. Donovan, Special Columbus Correspondent.

Nearly 50 per cent of those who apply to county boards for teachers' certificates do not receive them because of their inability to pass the examinations. This is shown by reports compiled by Frank W. Miller, state superintendent of public instruction.

During the year ending Aug. 31 a total of 36,628 men and women applied for certificates and 17,096, nearly half, were rejected because of failure in the prescribed tests. The male applicants numbered 11,913, with 5,249 rejections, and the female applicants 24,715, with 11,847 rejections.

The total number of certificates to be granted during the year was 18,520, of which 6,553 were granted to men and 11,967 to women. There is a pronounced falling off in the number of certificates granted as compared with the preceding year.

In 1912 the county boards granted 24,243 certificates, nearly 6,000 more than in the year just closed. The number of applicants in 1912 was 43,607, some 6,000 more than in the past year. There were 18,582 rejections.

At the office of the superintendent of public instruction no reason could be assigned for the reduction in the number of applicants in the past year from the number of the year before. The county boards hold examinations 12 times a year, the first Saturday in the month being the time for the examination. The total expenses of the county boards for the year amounted to $45,050.

The state library is now in a position to answer all kinds of questions. Librarian J. H. Newman having installed a bureau of information for such a purpose. A hundred times a day a great variety of questions are asked and this prompted the creation of the bureau. "We are prepared to tell you the age of Adam, who stole Emmeline Pankhurst's cat, the name of the man who struck Billy Patterman and why is a suffragist," said Mr. Newman.

Will Receive Large Sum. Within the next few days the state liquor license commission will be more than a half million dollars "to the good." It will have received from every licensed saloonkeeper in Ohio the sum of $100 for the maintenance of the saloon license department, and since the number of licenses exceeds 5,000 the revenue will be nothing to scoff at. The payment of the $100 per saloon is, in fact, the first money that the newly licensed saloonkeeper has to pay under the new license system. His license fee of $1,000 he pays in two installments, the first before the end of this month and the second in May.

Captured by Ruse. Detectives bent upon the arrest here Tuesday of a man wanted for murder, used an unique ruse that was possible only because it was election day. The detectives knew that their quarry was desperate and wouldn't submit to arrest without a struggle. So they called at his home in the guise of ward workers and urged him to hurry out and vote. "Well take you in our machine if you're ready," they said. The victim "fell for" the ruse and gladly accompanied them. He saw the trick too late and fought valiantly but in vain. The man is Eliza Irvin who was wanted in Huntington, W. Va., on the charge of murdering a body in the river.

New Pen Site Chosen. Gov. Cox has just made definite announcement of the selection, tentatively forecasted some time ago, of the new penitentiary farm will be on a tract of 1,550 acres, known as the Ellsworth farm, formerly the Thomas farm, in Madison county. It lies along the Big Four railroad and the Ohio Traction Co. line and is within a half mile of the Pennsylvania railroad. It is a well watered, fertile tract of land. Six hundred acres are virgin forest, which will furnish all the lumber needed in building operations and much will be used in manufacturing office and school furniture for use of the state and its subdivisions. There is an abundance of sand, gravel and clay from which the state will be enabled to make bricks and tiles. It is not far from Columbus.

That there will be further advances in the prices of coal Dec. 1, just as a 25 cent a ton increase was effective Nov. 1, was the statement of coal dealers here. They assert prices will continue to increase in the winter. Operators declared they were not responsible for the situation. Two things are given as cause of the increases, poor transportation facilities and independence of miners. They assert many mines are working only 50 per cent of time or capacity.

Tango Given Seal of Approval. The tango has every reason to be boastful. It has passed a rigorous examination at Ohio State university and bears now the seal of approval of that careful and conservative dean of college women, Miss Caroline Breyfogle. The result is it may be danced with freedom at all of the college functions where college femininity figures. It being now permitted as perfectly as football, the tango emerges from a deep gloom through which it passed last year.

Will Be Well Entertained. A fine program has been mapped out for entertainment of the boys and girls on the trip. They will stop at Pittsburgh and be given a sightseeing trip over the city. They will be entertained and given dancing lessons by a big preserving and canning plant here. A stop will be made at the famous Horseshoe Bend, near Altoona, on the Pennsylvania railroad. The party will be given a reception at Harrisburg by the chamber of commerce and Gov. Tener of Pennsylvania.

Clean Out "Old" Films. After Nov. 4 every moving picture shown in Ohio will have to bear the official approval of the state board of censors, and that board is now working overtime to clear the decks of "old" films, or those now being used in the state. The indications now are that the board will be able to complete its examination of all the existing films before the law begins to operate against them. After Nov. 4 the board will confine its work to the examination of films proposing to be shown in the state.

Board of Complaint. For the appeal of those who may not be satisfied with the findings of the new county taxing machinery in the assessment of property, it is provided in the Warner law that there shall be a board of complaint to be composed of three persons. These boards are to be named by the state tax commission and are to have the right of reversing the rulings and decisions in matters of taxation of the tax deputies and their force. The appeal from the board of complaint is to the state tax commission itself.

Will Enforce Law. Notwithstanding the Franklin county common pleas court has decided that the new weights and measures law is invalid, the state agricultural commission will continue its campaign in favor of its enforcement in all other parts of the state. The commission takes the position that the Franklin county court is applying the wrong law and it is advising local and county sealers of weight and measures to enforce the law, causing the arrest of all who do not comply with the provisions. Chief Justice from the state hatchery, which will be attended by prison labor. The new project means the abandonment of the present penitentiary and the sale of the site and buildings after the farm prison has got far enough along for the general transfer of prisoners. A separate prison is to be built in Perry county for the incarceration of convicts who cannot be trusted in the open. This site will be on a tract of brick clay and the prisoners there are to be used in making brick and other material for roads. The prison farm of the result of Gov. Cox's idea that the penitentiary is a place for punishing criminals is a failure.

Convicts Will Build Prison. "I feel justified in asking the legislature to spend $250,000 for the farm, after a farm prison has been recommended by a commission," said Gov. Cox. "I selected Lieut. Gov. Greenwald, Dr. Harris Cooper, Dr. James A. Leonard and Dr. Shepard as a commission to pick a farm, and they have chosen the Madison county site. As the prisoners themselves will build the prison the expense to the state will be small, if any. The old site in Columbus will be sold. Its value has been estimated at all the way from $300,000 to $600,000. At any rate, it will pay for the farm and for more than a year's maintenance of the penitentiary is going to be operated along the lines of scientific penology. We intend to operate it on a business basis, but above all, we are going to make money. And not only shall we save those who are sent to it, but we are going to make an intelligent effort to find out why men commit crime. We intend to try to learn the causes that lead into the wrong course, and if we can learn them, the state society can begin the work of removing the causes."

Loose Saloon by Small Margin. If Crestline could have included two more residents in its special census it would have been entitled to one more saloon. As it is, the city will have to get along with seven. The population up to date is 5,398. Oak Harbor filed its special census with the state liquor board and has 2,017, enough to get four saloons. In the government estimate it had enough for only three. In New Washington, in Crawford county, passed 1,000 and will be allowed one saloon more than the government census gave it. It showed 1,003 in population. Coldwater has 1,198 residents according to its new census. These figures have been approved by the state board.

Public School Survey Day. Public School Survey Day, to be celebrated on November 14, has created widespread interest. An elaborate program containing instructions, suggestions and programs for its observance in a pamphlet form has been prepared by a committee consisting of Frank J. Miller, superintendent of public instruction; Dr. W. O. Thompson, president of Ohio State university; and J. A. Shawan, superintendent of schools of Columbus. Every teacher in the state will receive a copy of the pamphlet.

Five specific features are emphasized for the program by the committee. These are: Reading of the governor's proclamation of the day; reading of the history of the schools of Ohio; reading of the sketch of the Ohio school survey, which will show the urgent need of a new school system, discussions by parents and visitors of the condition of the schools; reading of the history of the schools of Ohio; reading of the sketch of the Ohio school survey, which will show the urgent need of a new school system, discussions by parents and visitors of the condition of the schools; reading of the history of the schools of Ohio; reading of the sketch of the Ohio school survey, which will show the urgent need of a new school system, discussions by parents and visitors of the condition of the schools.

It is suggested that superintendents, principals and teachers adapt the general plan for observance of the day to their particular needs, making such modifications and extensions as may be necessary for this purpose. Meetings should be held both in the afternoon and at night.

"A light in every school house in the state on the evening of Nov. 14" is the slogan which every wide awake teacher in Ohio is urged to adopt so that every nook and corner of every school district in the state will be represented at these school house meetings, which are to give impetus to the project to lift rural schools from the deplorable condition which has dwarfed the efficiency of a majority of them.

They are making great preparations to observe the day in West Jefferson, Madison county," said Mr. Miller, superintendent of public instruction. "All the school children in the township will be there to march in a parade on the evening of the celebration. A letter I have received from E. L. Porter, superintendent of the township schools, shows the go-ahead, progressive spirit they have there. He says: "I am planning to have all the township schools come to Jefferson on the afternoon of Survey day and have a program, and at its close a grand parade of the township grades in the village and following them the high school and the township high school and patrons' meeting. A school parade with 500 children in it will be the largest parade ever made in this village, and it will be composed of boys and girls. Send me programs at earliest possible date. It is not far from Columbus."

Two Killed by Engine. New Philadelphia.—Charles Elmer Miller, 23 years of age, of Canal Dover, and Miss Eulalia Meyers, 19, a waitress in Hotel Reeves, this city, while walking along the Baltimore & Ohio railroad tracks a quarter of a mile east of the passenger station in this city, were instantly killed by a locomotive carrying empty cars from Canal Dover to the mines below this city.

Miller and Miss Meyers were engaged to be married but the date of the wedding had not been fixed. Both were former residents of Mineral City, this county, where the bodies were taken and buried side by side.

Two Women Found Dead. Dayton, O.—Mrs. Louise Pottier, aged 55, and her sister, Miss Katie Ellis, 45, were found dead by a mail carrier, the one seated by the window of their 4th home and the other lying on a lounge. A little gas stove, still burning, is believed to have caused their deaths by asphyxiation.
